

Constitutional Values and Fundamental Duties (CVAC) Orientation Programme Report

The department of Political Science successfully conducted CVAC Orientation on 3.12.24, 10.12.24 and 17.12.24 for B.A. Major, B.com Major and MDC, as well as B.A.MDC, at the Rajendralal Sabhagriha. Departmental Head, Dr.Rima Chatterjee introduced the students to the basics of the subject, familiarized them with the question pattern and marks distribution and ended by giving a detailed lecture on the topic of Constitutionalism. Prof Rakibul Shaikh discussed in great details the basic principles of the Indian Constitution as enshrined in the Indian Preamble. Dr.Somali Mukherjee discussed elaborately the topic of Fundamental rights .Prof Aniket Goswami elucidated the Concept of Rule of Law and Separation of Powers with very pertinent examples. Prof Atanu Gupta sensitized the students on Fundamental Duties. Senior most Professor, Dr.Gautam Mukherjee capped off the sessions by discussing the legal significance of the Fundamental Duties.

The programme was attended by large number of students. The best part was the interactive nature of the sessions which bore ample evidence to the fact that the sessions had been successful in garnering their interest in the subject. The department also gave a number of interesting power point presentations to help the students to easily grasp the complex concepts. This measure was widely appreciated by the students.

Some Glimpses of Constitutional Values And Fundamental Duties (CVAC) Orientation Programme

Some Glimpses of Constitutional Values And Fundamental Duties (CVAC) Orientation Programme