

The Department of Political Science Reunion 2025

The department organized a Reunion 'Flashback Fiesta'. It was attended by a large number of Ex students. They were accorded a very warm welcome and entertained with a short and sweet cultural programme organized by the present students.

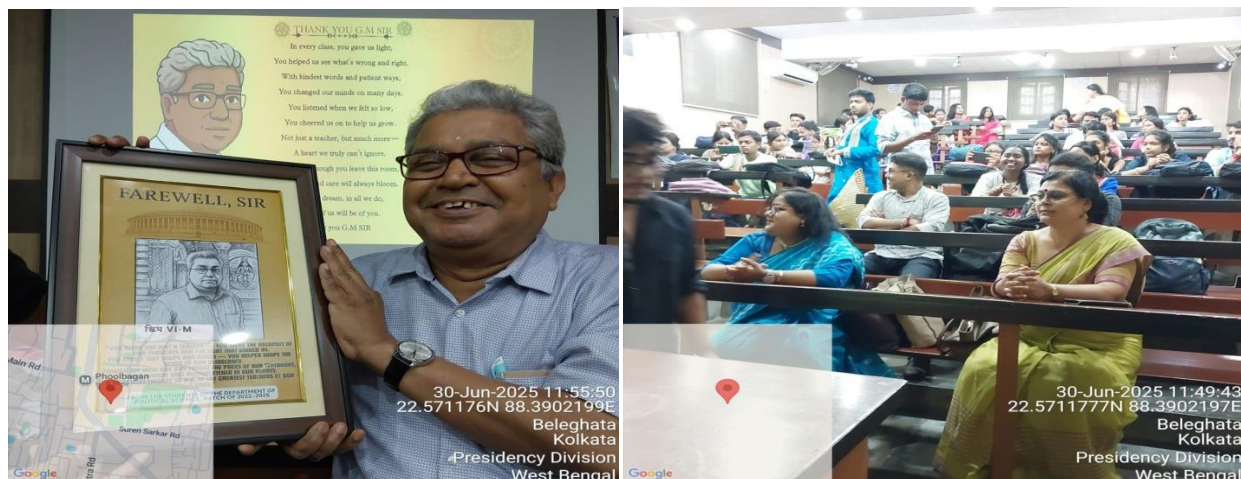

The ex students also gifted the department with books and a much required world map, as a token of their Alumni contribution. Some of the former students also staged a dance performance.

The Reunion was coupled with two other important events. The former students were given farewell by the present students. They were also gifted flowers and token presents.

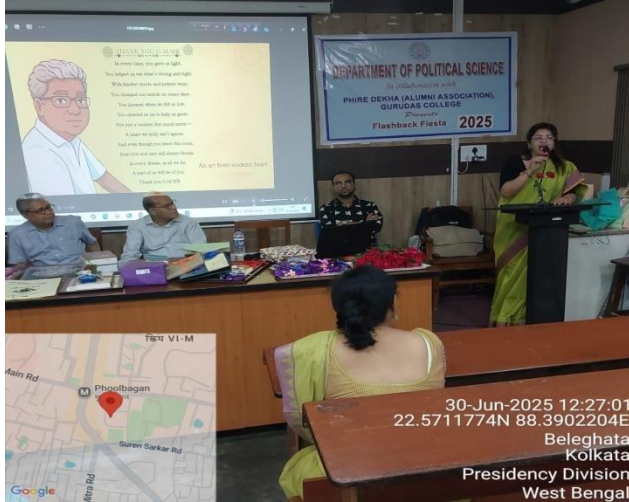

30th June happened to be the last working day of Dr. Gautam Mukherjee. He was gifted loads of book by the students and departmental colleagues. His memories and contribution to the department was reminiscized by all.

A short Alumni talk was also organized by the Department where two former students of the department discussed in depth about the career options in Political Science. They also shared their sweet memories of the department.

The program was attended by Prof Amitabha Ray, former Professor of the department. His presence made the day even more special. The festivities came to an end with a delicious lunch arranged by the Department. Overall it was a very successful and memorable day for all present.
